

The RFA 100 Club

The 100 Club was set up in the 1980s to raise additional monies to help support the game of Rugby Fives. A private lottery, its original 'charter' was based on the Betting and Gaming Act 1963 and specifically restricted the number of tickets to a maximum of 100.

Since then the Gambling Act 2005 has come into play which enables us to take advantage of the easing of some restrictions on private lotteries. The Board has reviewed the 100 Club rules and recommended that a new set should be adopted at this year's AGM. The principal changes are that there is no restriction on the number of tickets held in the draw, ticket-holders must be paid-up members of the RFA and prizes will no longer be fixed amounts but based on a percentage of the funds available. This means that with increased membership, prizes could become much larger than previously – £150 was the maximum.

The Board has recommended that 100 Club funds should, in future, be devoted principally to promote coaching of Rugby Fives.

Entry to the 100 Club continues to be £12 a year or multiples thereof, payable by standing order monthly or annually. The necessary forms can be found on the website and take just moments to complete.

This is a fun and highly effective way of supporting the sport. I urge all members of the RFA to sign up for at least one ticket, which costs less than standing one round of drinks after a game!
